7:00-8:30 p.m. - Reel Diversity
Location: Samuels Theatre, TCC
Brian Johnson is nationally recognized for his energetic, interactive workshops and seminars. Reel Diversity frames the diversity conversation through modern film. By sharing clips of well-known films and discussing the messages they consciously or unconsciously give, Brian allows every student to see himself or herself as diverse. Students laugh and remember some of their favorite movies, and from there, an interactive keynote about multiculturalism can begin.

8:30-11:00 p.m. - Glimpse of Midnight Breakfast & Movie: 22 Jump Street
Location: Falcon’s Nest & Samuels Theatre, TCC
Midnight Breakfast is a veritable end-of-semester festival where we have delicious breakfast foods at midnight and the dining hall is turned into a crowded dance floor. Get a glimpse of Midnight Breakfast and enjoy 22 Jump Street!—Although they made their way through high school successfully, an investigation at a local college brings big changes for undercover officers Jenko (Channing Tatum) and Schmidt (Jonah Hill). When Jenko meets a kindred spirit on the football team and Schmidt infiltrates the bohemian art-major scene, both men begin to question their partnership. Not only do they have to crack the case, but now the two overgrown adolescents must learn how to behave like adults.
